Drop your startup URL, I'll set up a free lifetime NullMark link for you

I'm the founder of NullMark, a tool that fixes one specific conversion killer: around 40% of social media clicks open in in app browsers (e.g: Instagram, TikTok, Facebook), which breaks checkout, kills cookie attribution, and loses you real sales. (not even apple pay works in there)

So I built NullMark. A Link redirect service that opens Your Link in the native browser instead of the broken in-app ones.

One link swap. 5 seconds. No code.

Drop your product/startup below and I'll personally send you a free lifetime link (normally $30). The only ask: Give me some honest feedback. I launched on ProductHunt yesterday and got little to no traction.

(Yes this is self-promo, but I genuinely want to help! Limited spots.)

Hey dood, this seems really intriguing! Especially for launch links shared on TikTok/IG. Dropping mine: https://captainfredric.github.io/ContentForge/ (content scoring API, just launched on PH).

Feedback: the one-liner "40% of social clicks open in broken in-app browsers" is a great hook, but the landing page could lead with a faster demo so people see it work before they trust the redirect.

Help a brother(human?) out!

thanks a lot!!

here is your link: https://nullmark.tech/r/contentforge

you can use that on your social media channels & since its a lifetime link youll receive every product update I do!

Really appreciate the feedback

Yeah man, anytime.

Already used it on my Twitter thread and both Reddit posts today. Solid product, the in-app browser thing is a real pain point most founders don't think about until after launch.

Interesting tool.

My brother (seasoned dev) and I built https://truenorthbudgeting.com

We noticed a lot of budgeting tools either feel overwhelming or rely heavily on syncing, tracking, and subscriptions... which isn't for everyone.

So we went a different route; everything runs locally on your computer. No accounts, no data sitting on servers, no subscriptions. Just a clear view of what's coming in and going out.

The goal was simple: make money feel easier to understand without adding more noise.

Would be curious to see how your link behaves with it 👍
